Pentecost
June 8 & 9, 2019

Stewardship Corner... Pentecost is actually an Old Testament festival. It happens around the time when the wheat and oats are ready to be brought in. In the New Testament, this becomes a picture and foreshadowing of the great harvest of humankind that God means to bring in through the preaching of His Word. God gives the seed, and God brings about the harvest – through the work of His Church.

Amigos en Cristo is having a garage sale in the Zion gym Friday, June 21 from 1-7 p.m. and Saturday, July 22 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. If you have any items you would like to donate, please bring to the Zion gym and set on the stage. Please... no TV's or computers. Thank you!

Zion Food Booth at the Fair If you have an unused Thrivent Action Team and would like to use it for fair booth supplies, we would appreciate it! We can even help you set it up online. Call or stop by the office. Thank you!

Lutheran Day at Adventureland is Wednesday, June 19. Discounted ticket price is $33 per person. Youth Group is going as a group... talk to Phil Oehlrich if interested.

Church Picnic Today at noon at the lakeside shelter at Yellow Smoke. Please bring a dish to share. This is also a free fishing weekend!

Pictorial Directory The next and last photography dates are June 20-22. Sign-up sheets are available in the narthex and online at <https://bookknowlifetouch.appointment-plus.com/ypyezbt4/>. Volunteers are need for hosting. Call the Zion office if you can help.

Mark Your Calendars! Zion School will host its annual Golf Tournament on Sunday, June 30. Get a team together or be a sponsor! Sponsorships are open for businesses, individuals, in memory of, and honorariums. Brochures in the narthex.

Thank You to the Vacation Bible School staff and volunteers, and to the students for sharing their voices today!

Thy Strong Word Listen to KDSN (107.1 FM) for these 3-4 minute devotions (Mon.-Sat.) at 6:25 a.m. This week's speaker is Pastor Josh.

Building Healthy Families: What is your favorite Bible verse? Consider writing about this verse, exploring why it has special meaning for you. Take the time to share it with your spouse, a family member or a friend. "Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing." 1 Thessalonians 5:11 (Lutheran Family Service of Iowa - Lynnette Aschinger (712-276-9000)).

First Reading

Genesis 11:1-9
¹Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. ²And as people migrated from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. ³And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. ⁴Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be dispersed over the face of the whole earth." ⁵And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of man had built. ⁶And the Lord said, "Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do. And nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. ⁷Come, let us go down and there confuse their language, so that they may not understand one another's speech." ⁸So the Lord dispersed them from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. ⁹Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth. And from there the Lord dispersed them over the face of all the earth.

Second Reading

Acts 2:1-21
¹When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. ²And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. ⁴And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance. ⁵Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. ⁶And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one was hearing them speak in his own language. ⁷And they were amazed and astonished, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" ⁸And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? ⁹Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, ¹¹both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians—we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God." ¹²And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" ¹³But others mocking said, "They are filled with new wine." ¹⁴But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. ¹⁵For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. ¹⁶But this is what was uttered through the prophet Joel: ¹⁷'And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; ¹⁸even on my male servants and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. ¹⁹And I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; ²⁰the sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and magnificent day. ²¹And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Genesis 11:1-9

Holy Gospel Reading

John 14:23-31
²³Jesus answered him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. ²⁴Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. ²⁵"These things I have spoken to you while I am still with you. ²⁶But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. ²⁷Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. ²⁸You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. ²⁹And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place you may believe. ³⁰I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no claim on me, ³¹but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go from here."
